

It is wrong for the Sinclair Broadcast Group, corporate owners of a significant number of television stations, to attempt to influence the outcome of an election by substituting propaganda for actual news coverage. Any broadcasting organization, regardless of the political leanings of its ownership, has a duty to act within the law. I look to you to uphold and enforce existing legislation that requires broadcasters to truly serve the public interest, rather than to subvert it.